GLOSSARY

FAD: distance learning platform.

Account: set of information that defines the user and allows access to the FAD.

Username: unique reference linked to your account essential, together with the password, to access the FAD. Normally, the username is equivalent to your codice fiscale or, failing that, to the email address.

Password: customized alphanumeric code of at least 8 characters which, together with the username, is essential to access your account on the platform. The password, generated by the user during the first access or later through the recovery / change procedure, is strictly personal and should not be disclosed to third parties.

Course details: section where information, materials and educational activities that are related to a training initiative are stored.

Educational materials: materials for educational and information purposes (such as slides, bibliographies, websites, etc.) that are available to users within the course modules.

Educational activities: activities for educational and information purposes that are available to users within the course modules. They are split into live activities (webinar) and on demand activities (e.g. video recordings of courses, multimedia courses, etc.).

Live Webinar: Interactive seminar that takes place in real time on the FAD.

Video on demand: interactive video, hosted on the FAD, available at any time.

Multimedia course: resource that combines text, audio, video, graphic and multimedia elements according to a different degree of interactivity.

ZOOM: free application that is key to join live webinars.

Step 4.2.4 – Wait for the Webinar to start

Wait for the webinar to start and use this time to configure the audio. You can do this by clicking on the speaker icon in the top bar.

The use of headphones is recommended. The microphone, instead, is not necessary.

5 – TAKE AN ON DEMAND COURSE

5.1 – PRELIMINARY RECOMMENDATIONS

Step 5.1.1 – Get ready for use

To make the most of an on-demand course, it is good to:

- Connect your device to the internet via Ethernet cable
- Preferably use the Google Chrome browser
- Close any additional web applications

5.2 – INSTRUCTIONS FOR USE

Step 5.2.1 – Select the course of your interest

- Enter the menu "MY COURSES"
- Search for the course you are interested in and select it
- Click on the "GO TO COURSE" button

Step 5.2.2 – Look for the cube-shaped button in the course

- i. Click on the button showing the cube symbol

Step 5.2.3 – Watch and complete the course

The video starts automatically after a few seconds.

At the bottom, the scroll bar shows the progress of the course. The “pause” feature (bottom left) allows you to temporarily suspend the use of the course, without leaving the session. The "rewind" function (bottom right) allows you to “restart” the course from the beginning

WARNING!

DO NOT ICONIZE THE VIDEO WINDOW AND DO NOT PUT IT IN THE BACKGROUND : the system detects the correct completion of the video ONLY IF it is reproduced in full size.

YOU WILL NOT BE ABLE TO MOVE THE SCROLLER until you have completed the course at least once.

5.3 – ADDITIONAL INSTRUCTIONS

Step 5.3.1 – How to interrupt / resume use

If necessary, you can exit the course by clicking the X symbol that appears in the video window. By clicking on the symbol you have the option:

- to exit. In this case the platform, through a bookmark, will store the minutes. This will allow you to resume use from the moment the course was stopped;
- to return to the course.

6 – FAQ

Here are some of the most frequently asked questions from our users. To simplify navigation and identification of the topics, the questions have been grouped into subject areas.

ACCESS TO THE PLATFORM AND ACCOUNT MANAGEMENT

How can I access the Foundation's FAD platform?

To access the Foundation's FAD platform, simply create a personal account. Select the item "Create an account" on the platform's entry page and follow the guided procedure. Once the account has been created, to access the platform, use your social security number (codice fiscale) or your email address as username and your personal password.

We kindly remind you that access to the platform, as well as to all its contents, is totally free.

I don't remember my account username

On our FAD the username is equivalent to your codice fiscale or your email address

I would like to change the USERNAME to access my account, is it possible?

It is not possible for you to change the username associated with your account. If you need to change it, write to helpdesk@fondazione scuolapatrimonio.it.

I don't remember my password / I would like to change my password

To recover or change your password, select the item "Forgot your username or password?" that is on the platform's entry page and follow the guided procedure. Where requested, remember to enter the email address associated with your account.

If after a few moments you do not receive the password / username recovery email, check the SPAM folder of your inbox or, alternatively, repeat the procedure making sure you enter the email address associated with your account correctly.

I would like to change or add some information in my account, how can I do it?

To change or add more information in my account section, select the "edit" item under your name on the platform. Enter or edit your profile information, then click the "Save changes" button.

It is important to fill in and keep updated the various items that form your profile in order to receive the right communications and the best recommendations about the platform's content.

SUBSCRIBE / UNSUBSCRIBE TO COURSES

How can I sign up for courses on the platform?

The courses hosted on the platform can be FREE or RESTRICTED ACCESS.

FREE ACCESS COURSES. The free access courses are available in the "CATALOG" section. To subscribe to a course, browse the "CATALOG", click on the cover of the course you are interested in, then click on the "Go to the course" and "Enroll me" buttons that will appear later. From this moment you will find the course as well, as all the courses you are already enrolled in, in the section "MY COURSES".

RESTRICTED ACCESS COURSES. The courses with restricted access are part of training initiatives that the Foundation organizes in collaboration with other bodies / institutions. The courses with restricted access are not present in the Catalog section. To join these courses, make sure to reach out to the promoters and get directions.

How can I cancel my enrollment in a course?

To unsubscribe from an open access course, go to the "MY COURSES" section, enter the tab dedicated to the course you no longer want to attend and click on the "Unsubscribe" button on the right side of the screen.

To unsubscribe from a restricted access course, contact the promoters of the initiative.

PLEASE NOTE. In case of live webinars, where capacity is limited, unsubscribing is a responsible gesture when you are sure you cannot attend. In this way you will give way to another person.

FOLLOW A LIVE WEBINAR

What type of configurations should I set on my device (computer / tablet / smartphone)?

Live webinars are broadcast on ZOOM Meeting application (click here to go to the download page)

How do I join a webinar?

In order to participate in the webinars you are subscribed to, connect to the FAD platform, access the tab dedicated to the meeting and click on the button with the 3 stick figures. You can connect to the webinar starting from 10 minutes before it starts.

PLEASE NOTE: When you join the webinar, ZOOM requires you to log in. You will need to enter a name and email address. To ensure the system will correctly record your attendance at the webinar, remember to enter the same email address you are registered with on the platform.

The webinar is about to start but I cannot log in. What can I do

You can connect to the webinar starting from 10 minutes before it starts. If less than 10 minutes are left and you can't log in, reload the page. At this point click on the button with the 3 men.

PLEASE NOTE: When you join the webinar, ZOOM requires you to log in. You will need to enter a name and email address. To ensure the system will correctly record your attendance at the webinar, remember to enter the same email address you are registered on the platform with.

I followed the webinar, but the system does not mark the activity as completed. Why?

The platform records the status of participation in live activities only at the end of the day. Then wait the day after the meeting to check your participation status in the webinar.

If the day after the webinar, you keep noticing an inconsistency between what was recorded by the platform and your actual participation, reach out to helpdesk@fondazione scuolapatrimonio.it.

WATCH A VIDEO ON DEMAND

What type of configurations should I set on my device (computer / tablet / smartphone)?

To enjoy the ON DEMAND videos, you do not need to install special applications on your device.

However, we recommend you to connect your device to the internet via an ethernet cable, to close all unnecessary local and web applications, to preferably use Google's Chrome browser and not to move the playback window in the background.

I have opened the video on demand but I cannot go back and forth on the scroll bar.

To be able to move the scroll bar, you must have completed watching the video at least once and in full.

You can still complete the viewing of the video on demand in several stages by pausing or stopping it. The system will record your progress, allowing you to resume viewing at a later time.

Can I watch the video on demand by moving the playback window in the background?

No, you cannot, if you open other tasks or move the playback window in the background while playing the video on demand, the system will not detect your progress. If played in the background, even if the video is finished, it will not be finished and you will be able to resume watching it only from the moment you stopped playing it in the foreground.

I can't finish watching the video on demand as it stops before the end.

Before being uploaded to the platform, all videos on demand are subject to a technical control procedure that ensures correct formatting and preservation over time.

The sudden and early interruption of a video is often due to the quality of the internet connection of the device used or the overload of this. In similar cases, we recommend to delete your browsing data, connect your device to the internet via an ethernet cable, to check the stability and connection speed by testing it, to close all unnecessary web and local applications, to preferably use the Google Chrome browser and not to move the playback window in the background.

If, despite the suggested measures, you continue to encounter problems, write to helpdesk@fondazione scuolapatrimonio.it.

I watched the video in full, but the system does not mark the activity as completed.

The system detects the state of use of the video only if it is played in the foreground. If you open other windows or move the playback window in the background while playing the video, the system will not detect your progress. If played in the background, even if the video is finished, it will not be finished and you will be able to resume watching it only from the moment you stopped playing it in the foreground.

If the video is reproduced correctly, keeping the window always in the foreground, any problems in recording progress can be caused by weak or unstable connections, which do not allow the system to send signals strong enough for it to be able to record them.

In similar cases of failure, in order to record the progress or complete the progress of the activity, we suggest you to delete your browsing data, connect your device to the internet via an ethernet cable, to close all unnecessary web and local applications. Then preferably use the Google Chrome browser . Once the video is on, we also recommend you to stop viewing the video from time to time and check that the system records the progressive progress.

If, despite the suggested measures, you continue to encounter problems, reach out to helpdesk@fondazione scuolapatrimonio.it.

CERTIFICATES

I have fully followed the multimedia course, will I be issued a certificate?

The certificates for the free access courses get accessible and downloadable once the course has been completed and the didactic activities within it are correctly completed. The button for downloading the certificate will be available within the course sheet. In training programs with restricted access, any certificate issued by the platform does not replace the one issued by the promoter of the initiative.
